Blair Associates

Client:
Connaught Hotel

Main Contractor:
Ellmer Construction

Location:
Mayfair, London

Portland Stone:
Bowers Basebed

Scope of Project:
Construction of West Wing extension of existing building.

Albion Stone supplied Portland Bowers Basebed for the construction of West Wing extension of the Connaught Hotel in Mayfair.

This was in the form of finished ashlar, quoins, copings and band coursing.

Built over a three-level basement, excavated to a depth of approximately 12.5m below road level, the extension accommodates a swimming pool, health spa, fitness suite and conference facilities.

Albion Stone supplied a total of 14m³ for the West Wing extension.
