ALBION STONE

Portland Heights Hotel, Dorset

Architect/Designer:

N/A

Client:

The Heights Hotel

Main Contractor:

N/A

Location:

Portland, Dorset

Portland Stone:

New Independent Whitbed

Scope of Project:

Portland stone flooring for hotel lobby area.

The project comprised the regeneration of the Portland Heights Hotel reception, with Portland Limestone being specified for flooring, sculptures and reception desk.

Due to the need for minimal disruption as the hotel would remain operational during the refurbishment programme, the Hotel requested a fast track programme of manufacture and fixing.

Albion supplied approximately 150m² of New

Independent Whitbed fine honed flooring tiles, in the standard size of 600mm x 400mm x 20mm.

On Albion's recommendation specialist flooring contractor Hardwood and Natural Stone Flooring were appointed to fix the stone ensuring completion by February 2002. The entire stone fixing element of the project was completed on schedule.

The value of stone element of the project was approximately £12,000 with the project being completed in February 2003.
